

Basic Detail Report

Title Carved and Painted Wooden Barong Bangkal

Date 19th century

Medium Wood, polychrome pigments, metal hardware, fur, natural fibers

Description This is the wild boar iteration of Barong. It symbolizes the same character as Barong Ket—the manifestation of benevolent forces in the cosmos—but in an alternative physical form. Barong Bangkal is utilized in holiday processions of Galungan and Kuningan, serving a protective function. When performed, his jaws are operated to make a loud clapping noise. During village processions, children often parade their own non-sacred version of Barong Bangkal, sharing Balinese traditions across generations.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Overall: 19 × 14 × 21 in. (48.3 × 35.6 × 53.3cm)