Steel Katar (Push Dagger) with Inlaid Silver Elephant Motifs

19th century

India

British India/Princely States

Silver, steel

16 1/2 x 4 x 5/8 in. (41.9 x 10.2 x 1.6 cm)

This katar has balustrade-like crossbars and delicate silver-inlaid decorations of elephants on its damascened (watered) steel body. Such careful attention to detail and fine craftsmanship make it seem fanciful and ornate - but this dagger is nonetheless an imposing, deadly weapon. In addition to the strength of its steel body when thrust into prey, it has a scissor-like action of secondary blades which pop out when the crossbars are squeezed to inflict incredible damage.
